

Discover Creative Campden Weekend

Saturday 17th
September 2011

with talks, presentations and open studios

Chipping Campden, North Cotswolds

Events in the Old Police Station

9.30am Walking in air

Susan Rosenberg paints when she walks and walks when she paints – well her painting process is something like that. She will explain when she talks.

10.15am Abstracting from photography to watercolour

David Birch in conversation and demonstration.

11.00am If I say it's art, it is. If you say it isn't, you're wrong

Geoffrey Jackson with some personal thoughts and observations on creating art.

11.45am The birth of a photography book

Photographer Betty Stocker relates how the retirement gift of a camera led to the birth of a book recording the life and work of the Cotswold countryside.

12.30pm Organs, reeds, pipes and stops

Charles Matthews explains how an organ works and how an organist deals with it.

2.00pm Tell us a story

Publisher Arthur Cunynghame tells the story of his move from wine to cheese to books and highlights some of the books he has published.

All talks and presentations are free* and will take place in the Old Police Station, High Street, Chipping Campden. Reserve your place by telephoning 01386 840435, or take a chance and arrive 5 minutes before the start time.

Chipping Campden, Gloucestershire

2.45pm New-media is here

Sarah Beecham highlights her trajectory from Fine Art, through embroidery design, to new-media production for specialist art collections and museums.

3.30pm Festival! Festival!

Take a look behind the scenes of a festival with Vicky Bennett.

4.15pm The habit of connection

Our lives are full of connections – some we recognise, others are beyond our immediate awareness and may take us by surprise. Ann Allen reads from her first collection of poetry.

5.00pm First find your tree

From tree to table, cabinet maker Jeremy Green explains the stages in creating a beautiful piece of furniture from locally found dead and fallen trees.

6.30pm Music old and new

Richard Stephens explores the differences in approaching familiar and new pieces, with recorded examples of works from the forthcoming Campden Music season.

8.00pm Creative Supper

The King's chef will talk us through a 4-course creative menu using local ingredients and innovative culinary techniques.

* Except the Creative Supper, which should be booked directly with the King's (01386 840256). Donations to Creative Campden will be welcome at all events.

Church Rooms - 1

A Quintet of Creatives

Enjoy Furniture by Jeremy Green, Paintings by David Birch, Photographs by Betty Stocker, Textiles by Jackie Stringer and Books by Loose Chippings.

See what you like, like what you buy.

Church Rooms, Church Street.

Sat and Sun 10am to 4pm

Susan Rosenberg - 2

Artist's Studio

Learn more about how Susan's richly coloured paintings interpret nature.

Orchard Lawn, Broad Campden. 01386 841635

Sat 11am to 5pm and Sunday 10am to 5pm

Caroline Richardson - 3

Jewellery Studio

Browse and buy from Caroline's beautiful collections or commission your own piece of jewellery.

The Guild, Sheep Street. 01386 841167

Sat 9am to 5pm

Court Barn Museum - 4

Arts & Crafts Exhibition

An exhibition of work by Norman Jewson, who settled in Sapperton in 1907 and worked with Ernest Gimson as part of the Cotswold Arts and Crafts movement.

Court Barn Museum, Church Street. 01386 841951

Sat and Sun 10am to 5pm

Caroline Barnett - 5

Sculpture in the Garden

'Artist in residence' working and talking to visitors in the grounds of the hotel.

Cotswold House Hotel, The Square. 01386 840330

Sat 10am to 4pm

Jaffé and Neale Book Shop - 6

Local Literary Talent

A showcase of local literary talent in all its forms: books by local authors, artists, photographers and publishers and books about the area, past authors and artists associated with Chipping Campden.

Jaffé and Neale, High Street. 01386 841011

Sat 9.30am to 5pm, Sun 11am to 5pm

Christina Kingsmill - 7

Textiles and Found Materials

Christina's garden studio will be open displaying various aspects of her work including some photography.

11 Sheep Street. 01386 840278

Sat 10am to 5pm and Sun 10am to 4pm

Rosamund and John Young - 8

Paintings

Rosamund paints 'en plein air', the changing seasons and weather providing her with a constant challenge. Walk through their lovely garden to view and buy their work.

Flag Close, Calf Lane. (rear of the Lygon Arms) 01386 840410

Sat and Sun 10am to 4pm

Gallery @ The Guild - 9

Co-operative Gallery

Fine art, ceramics, furniture, photography, sculpture and textiles. Showcasing co-operative members' work alongside Susan Megson Glass. There will be demonstrations, talks and readings throughout the weekend.

The Guild, Sheep Street. 01386 849251

Sat and Sun 10am to 5pm

Robert Welch - 10

Cutlery Design

Visit the Robert Welch Studio Shop to see award-winning products and to find out about the company. Free gift for first 300 visitors presenting this programme on Sat 17th, plus prize draw for Signature knife block..

Lower High Street. 01386 840522

Sat 9.30am to 5.30pm and Sun 10am to 4pm

Hart's - 11

Traditional Silversmiths

Visitors are welcome to watch silver being fashioned and talk to the silversmiths in this historic setting.

The Guild, Sheep Street. 01386 841100

Sat 9am to 5pm

Campden Gallery - 12

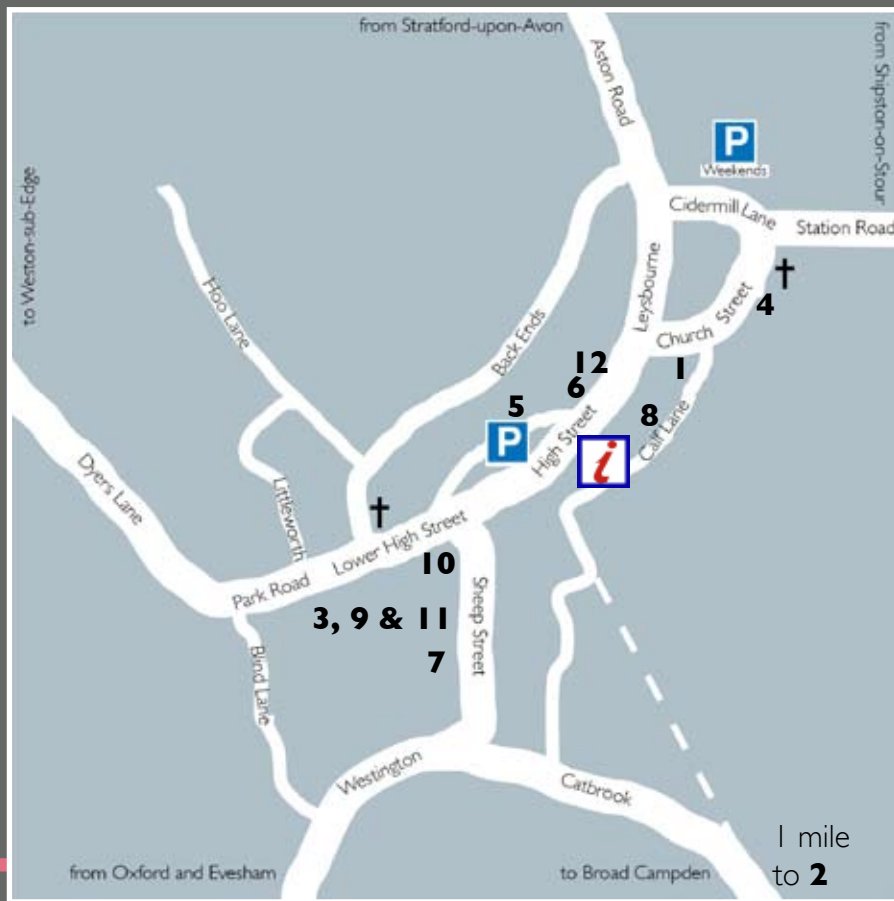

Mediterranean Paintings

Derek Balmer with an exhibition titled

'The Shores of the Mediterranean'.

Campden Gallery, High Street. 01386 841555

Sat 10am to 5.30pm and Sun 11am to 4pm

1. Church Rooms
2. Susan Rosenberg
3. Caroline Richardson
4. Court Barn Museum
5. Caroline Barnett
6. Jaffé and Neale Book Shop
7. Christina Kingsmill
8. Rosamund and John Young
9. Gallery @The Guild
10. Robert Welch
11. Hart's
12. Campden Gallery

Full Details from

The Information Centre,
 The Old Police Station, High Street,
 Chipping Campden,
 Gloucestershire,
 GL55 6HB
 or telephone 01 386 840435

A wealth of creativity, this weekend and throughout the year